

Victoria Catherine Basaraba, age 73, of Miami, FL formerly of Elmwood Park, IL, died September 2nd, 2015 after a lengthy cardiac illness, at Mount Sinai Medical Center. She was preceded in death by her parents Stephen and Anna Fiedorowicz Basaraba. Vicki was a Geriatric Nurse Practitioner retired from the Veteran's Administration Hospital in West Palm Beach, FL. Vicki is survived by her brother, William A. Basaraba and his wife Dori of Royal Palm Beach, FL., and her sister Catherine C. Acosta and her husband Fernando of Elmwood Park, IL. Vicki is also survived by nieces Amy Elizabeth Basaraba of Chandler, AZ, Corrine Natalie Buffalo of Chicago, IL, DoriAnn Simone Basaraba of Chicago, IL; nephews, Lt. Colonel Stephen Joseph Acosta of Arlington, VA, William Richard Basaraba of Gilbert, AZ, and Stanley Edward Basaraba of Verona, IL, as well as two great nieces and five great nephews. Services are being held on Wednesday, October 7, 2015 at the West Palm Beach VA Chapel at 12 noon and Thursday, October 8, 2015 with mass at 10am at St. Rose of Lima Church, 415 NE 105th St., Miami, FL. Vicki's remains will be buried in Mt. Home, Arkansas in her father's grave. Contributions in Vicki's memory may be made to your local animal non-profit rescue group. She will be missed by all who knew her.